

Trust

So much pain today
for fear of pain tomorrow
So many days lost in translation
So many kisses all for nothing
All in all for just sorrow?
When all the ways you know
Moonlight becomes you so
When all the while you know
The arrow is lost without a bow

So many tears today for fear of tears tomorrow
So many days lost in translation
So many kisses all for nothing
All in all for just sorrow?
When all the ways you know
Face the splinters to be whole
When all the while you know
All you can do is trust

Trust
Come what may
Whatever it is
That's kissed the heart he stole
That's kissed the heart he stole

Trust
Come what may
Whatever it is
That's kissed the heart he stole

That's kissed the heart he stole
