

I'm The One

To kill the beast, to start off the feast

To resurrect your – yo! yo! – soul, deceased

To beat up the ghost, to love you the most

To eat you like a Rickenbacker riff, roast on toast

I'm your love dove letters in the sand man

I can save your guts from fucked up gang bangs

I can reel you baby, I can rock you steady

I can kiss you from fore to ass aft, I'm ready

I'm the one, I'm the one,

'Neath the setting sun

Dark-eyed lady

Don't you run, don't you run,

I'm your magnum calibre fungun baby

Let's dream astream the river

Far away from the fuss and buzz

We'll have faith, we'll have trust

There will always be us

Ocean's wide, ocean's deep

Just singing our song and leap

Fight the fear

And burst the beast

And finally, go to sleep

D'ya get it, my sweet sour knickerbocker glory?

I'm your handy man, your salty dog story

You'll never go to heaven, or the likes, without me

So body and soul, don't you never ever doubt me

Whenever in need, you just call me, I'll get'ya

This whole lot'a shakin crazy world, you bet'ya

Is never gonna gun you down, or stab'ya

Not as long as your Daddy'O's there to grab'ya

I'm the one, I'm the one,

'Neath the setting sun

Dark-eyed lady

Don't you run, don't you run,

I'm your magnum calibre fungun baby
