

Into Harmonious Blues

where master windward rules
Sail away your soul
Nothing to lose
If I could choose:
Harmonious blues
Where the sun's going down and rising
On the horizon
Oh horizon!*

Into the blue nothingness
Away from the gray lotsofthingsness
Into the clear and simple where the ship is my focus temple

Where nothing else matters
Nothing else shatters
Nor even my mind alters or stirs
From the eternal spotless circular wisdoms of the universe

*Into harmonious blues
Where master windward rules
Sail away your soul
Nothing to lose
If I could choose:
Harmonious blues
Where the sun's going down and rising
On the horizon
Oh horizon!*

And nothing else in sight of my eye
Under white flying clouds in the sky
'Xcept foreverly rolling blue seas
And softly soothing breeze

Where the lofty high up aboves
With its lovingly long lost wandering doves
Meet the for ever and ever same belows
Way down deep, where nobody knows
