

Cry Once More

you angel you standing there in the doorway your glimmering eyes like a bird at sun rise love's magic potion happiness in motion those glittering stars on your cheeks ok, so it's you and me for keeps?

in that car in the darkness back seat encircled by your magic perfume scent couldn't fathom just what it meant but holding hands in the dark was wreaking havoc on my heart sure I know I'm just one of those hopeless love geeks but now I guess it's you and me for keeps?

Chorus:

When I saw that three cornered smile spied that dazzle in your eyes I knew I's gonna cry
once more before I die
once more before I die
And when I touched that lovely curly hair t'was just there!
without asking when or where, or why

Solo

was gonna cry

talking chat in the gym's room slim and tights and body and sweat all the way, into the back of the net surprise surprise but I told you I love you didn't see it coming but I told I love you whispered in your ear, kissed your cheek ok, so it's you and me for keeps?

Chorus

spied that dazzle in your eyes
was gonna cry once more before I die cry once more before I die
cry once more, more, more before I die
