

Fearless

Fearless: Leaving all what's left behind
Fearless: Said and done's gonna leave no sign
Humming 'bout what's been and gone
Drumming on to whatever is to come

Fearless: Holding on to what I once used to see
Fearless: Caressing what my senses kept telling me
Embracing the world from north to south
Bittersweet now, the taste in my mouth

Chorus

You can kill me if you like
Don't care much anymore
There's no nothing's gonna die
Washing us all
Into the sea of blight
Running running
From the burning gore
Far away from shore
Far away from shore
Fearless to my mind
Fearless gonna leave no sign
Gonna leave no sign

Fearless: Croaked the raven: No no never no more
Fearless: Struggling on and on whatever the score
Worn down to the bone from numbness and disdain
Faltering, stumbling in the pouring rain
